Refunding Certificate

50. $10.00 April 1, 1879 Fr-214. Bearing 4 per cent interest and redemption value $21.30. A desirable clean specimen which was purchased in an A. N. A. Convention sale as "Fine" for $220.00. While I agree with this description, must mention several old sharp creases that have weakened the note and also several small holes which can be seen when held to the light. This is true of nearly all known specimens, no doubt due to the unusual size. Friedberg lists this certificate in Fine at $300.00. They are not listed or priced in a better condition for the simple reason they are seldom found better. The point I am trying to make is this - I would probably only call this note Very Good if in an ordinary series where Very Fine and Uncirculated ones are obtainable. But, for a Refunding Note, it certainly is Fine and far above the average and about as good as they come. A very rare and desirable note that is well worth $250.00.
